

EDUCATION IMPACT ACADEMY TRUST PRIVACY NOTICE - APPLICANTS

Under UK data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how our school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals applying for jobs within Education Impact Academy Trust.

This document contains the following information:

1. The personal information we process
2. How we collect personal information
3. Why we collect and use personal information
4. How we store your information
5. Data sharing
6. Your Data Protection rights
7. How to complain

This notice will be reviewed annually or sooner when significant changes are made to the law. Last updated June 2025.

Our Data Protection Officer is Dannielle Knibbs, dpo@educationimpact.org.uk.

THE PERSONAL INFORMATION WE PROCESS

The categories of information that we collect, hold, and share include the following:

- Personal and contact information (such as name, address and phone number)
- Copies of right to work documentation
- References
- Evidence of qualifications
- Employment records including work history

The following categories fall in to 'Special Categories' of more sensitive information.

- Information about race, ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation and political opinions
- Information about disability and access requirements
- Photographs and CCTV images captured in school
- Information about criminal convictions and offences.

We may also hold data about you that we have received from other organisations, including other schools and local authorities, and the Disclosure and Barring Service in respect of criminal offence data

HOW WE COLLECT INFORMATION

We will only collect and use your data when the law allows us to. While most of the information we collect about you is mandatory, there is some information that can be provided voluntarily.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

WHY WE COLLECT AND USE PERSONAL INFORMATION

We use your data to:

- Assess your suitability for the role you are applying for
- Enable us to establish relevant experience and qualifications
- Facilitate safer recruitment as part of our safeguarding obligations
- Enable equalities monitoring
- Ensure that appropriate access arrangements can be provided for candidates that require them

If you fail to provide information when requested, which is necessary for us to consider your application (such as evidence of qualifications or work history), we will not be able to process your application successfully. For example, if we require references for this role and you fail to provide us with the relevant details, we will not be able to take your application further.

We will only use your personal information for the purposes for which we have collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your personal information for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), we must have a lawful basis for processing your personal information include:

1. Article 6(a) – Consent: There may be times when we request your consent to process your data for a specific purpose which does not fall into the other categories below.
2. Article 6(b) Contract: The necessary processing of data to enter a contract of employment with us.
3. Article 6(c) - Legal obligations: The necessary processing of data as an employer to comply with the law.
4. Article 6(d) – Vital Interests: The necessary processing of information in a life-or-death situation.
5. Article 6(e) – Public Interest: The necessary processing of data to carry out our statutory duty to safeguard pupils and other individuals.
6. Article 6(f) – Legitimate interests: where there's a minimal privacy impact and we have a reasonable purpose for processing data.

For 'special category' data, we only collect and use it when we have both a lawful basis, as set out above, and 1 of the following conditions for processing as set out in UK data protection law:

1. We have obtained your explicit consent to use your personal data in a certain way
2. We need to perform or exercise an obligation or right in relation to employment, social security or social protection law
3. We need to protect an individual's vital interests (i.e. protect your life or someone else's life), in situations where you're physically or legally incapable of giving consent
4. The data concerned has already been made manifestly public by you
5. We need to process it for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims
6. We need to process it for health or social care purposes, or public health reasons

While you are in our schools, we may monitor your use of our information and communication systems, equipment and facilities (e.g. school computers). We do this so that we can:

1. Comply with health and safety and other legal obligations
2. Comply with our policies (e.g. child protection policy, IT acceptable use policy) and our legal obligations
3. Keep our network(s) and devices safe from unauthorised access, and prevent malicious software from harming our network(s)

HOW WE STORE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We keep personal information about during the application process. We may also keep it beyond this if this is necessary to comply with our legal requirements or to meet our regulatory requirements.

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed.

We will dispose of your personal data securely when we no longer have a legal requirement to retain it.

DATA SHARING

We do not share information about you with any third party without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with UK data protection law), we may share personal information about you with:

- HR and recruitment support
- Professional and legal advisors and consultants

References are considered confidential and are not typically disclosed to you.

YOUR DATA PROTECTION RIGHTS

Under data protection law, you have certain rights regarding how your personal data is used and kept safe. For example, you have the right to:

- Object to our use of your personal data where it is likely to cause, or is causing damage or distress
- Be informed about the collection and use of your personal data.
- Have inaccurate personal data changed or completed if it is incomplete.
- Erasure, often known as the 'right to be forgotten'; however, this does not apply where, amongst other things, processing is necessary to comply with a legal obligation.
- Restrict the way we are using your information, although, as above this is a limited right.
- Object to the way we are using your information; though other than for marketing purposes, this is also limited as above.
- Where we rely on your consent to collect and use your data, you have the right to withdraw that consent. If you do change your mind, or you are unhappy with our use of your personal data, please let us know.
- Make a complaint to the Information Commissioners Office and claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

You have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that we hold about you.

If you make a request, we will keep a record of the request and any personal data supplied for a suitable period after its fulfilment, to deal with any questions, you, your representatives or regulators may have about it.

If you would like to make a request, please contact us (see 'Contact us' below).
